Philadelphia, April 24th 1809

M. Thos. Cumpston,

Sir,

I agree to lend my organ for the use of the Church for 2 years for $45 per annm. you being at the expence of removing the organ to and from the church, & to return it in the same order that you receive it: provided, that should it be sold before the expiration of that time. I have the liberty of removing it, & being paid for the time you have had it, in which case it shall be removed at my own expence.

I am, Sir,

Your hble. servt.

D'Sir

I have seen the note you have written to Mr J. R. Hunt rela tive to the Interment of Mrs. Rodney. H. lies in Frank ford and cannot at present be seen by me. But I have been informed the Corpse of Mrs. Rodney was extreme ly offensive, very soon after her death and in all probability by the time stated. There can be little doubt but that the debt to the Church will be ultimate ly secure, but as there are no present funds for pay ment, it seems to be a rigorous demand to require payment of the money before the Interment

Dor Wm Hunt of Frankford has a convey ance of all Mrs Rodneys property and I suppose will administer upon it. I have nothing to do with the business, save that my acquaintance with Mrs Rodney in her Life time makes me regret that her body should be denied the ground to cover it:

If the demand can be postponed it will I think be secure

Yours very obliged
